

Project ♥ Linus Monterey Bay Chapter

Blanket Day 2003

Our second annual Blanket Day, which was held February 16th at the Doubletree Hotel was once again a huge success. The day was a triumph thanks to the fifty-five Blanketeers who came and made 34 blankets! In addition to the blankets made, 61 blankets were dropped off. We collected a total of 95 blankets!!

To see pictures of the day, please visit our website at www.projectlinus.info.

Each Blanketeer gave a great deal of time, effort and labor of love to make Blanket Day 2003 such a success. Our community is truly blessed to have so many caring individuals. Your spirit and heart full of love toward children who are in need is just awesome.

Thank you,

Special Thanks To:

Doubletree for once again allowing us the free use of the Portola Room. Thank you as well to the very helpful and courteous staff.

- Bella Brancato for the use of Carmel High School's sewing machines.
- Debra Wagner for teaching the crochet workshop.
- Sarge Furman for conducting a class on quilting tips and for the tremendous support she has given through the gift of fabrics and batting.
- Jordana McVey for teaching the knitting workshop.
- Your generosity is topped only by your insightful understanding of how important Project Linus is to children who are in need in our community.
